

Do's and don'ts in Leuven

Do's

- Ask people in the street if you're looking for an address or place. Most people speak English well and will be more than happy to help you!
- Try the local food!
- Wonder around the city without knowing where you're going. This is how you find the nicest spots!
- Take pictures. So many nice places to photograph!
- Get a bike! By far the best way of transport in Leuven. Try Velo!
- Enjoy the city's markets on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Don'ts

- When kissing someone on the cheek, don't start with the left cheek: we start with the right cheek! You might have an "accident"
- Never ever leave your bike somewhere unlocked! It might end up stolen, broken or on the bottom of the Dijle.
- Don't park your bike where it's clearly not allowed. The police collects them and you have to pay a fine to get them back!
- Flemish people are not always spontaneous in opening conversation with strangers, but don't think they don't want to get to know you. Use some of our "Goesting in Taal" ice breakers!
- Don't let the weather discourage you! Stay inside for cosy activities in rainy weather and then watch the city come alive as the sun comes out.

Discover more on:
www.goestingintaal.com

Do's and don'ts in Leuven

Do's

- Ask people in the street if you're looking for an address or place. Most people speak English well and will be more than happy to help you!
- Try the local food!
- Wonder around the city without knowing where you're going. This is how you find the nicest spots!
- Take pictures. So many nice places to photograph!
- Get a bike! By far the best way of transport in Leuven. Try Velo!
- Enjoy the city's markets on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Don'ts

- When kissing someone on the cheek, don't start with the left cheek: we start with the right cheek! You might have an "accident"
- Never ever leave your bike somewhere unlocked! It might end up stolen, broken or on the bottom of the Dijle.
- Don't park your bike where it's clearly not allowed. The police collects them and you have to pay a fine to get them back!
- Flemish people are not always spontaneous in opening conversation with strangers, but don't think they don't want to get to know you. Use some of our "Goesting in Taal" ice breakers!
- Don't let the weather discourage you! Stay inside for cosy activities in rainy weather and then watch the city come alive as the sun comes out.

Discover more on:
www.goestingintaal.com

